From the D C Ernakulam
Letter No 04 62/41 2-9 145 1943 dt requesting Government to waive the recovery of interest at 4½ % on the loan instalments due by the Anckal Town Municipality towards the primary education contribution

Collection not made owing to war

The G.O dt 16 7 1940, it was directed that the amount of primary education Contribution due by the Anckal town Municipality be paid to Government in six annual instalments carrying interest at 4½ % commencing from the year 1940-41

2) The Municipality having failed to remit the instalments promptly every year, the arrears amounted to Rs 3,000/- and the Municipal Counc. requested that the interest on arrears of the above Contribution may be waived The request was considered by Government and instructions were issued that the Municipality may apply for a loan from Government and clear off the dues

3) It is now reported that the Municipal Council have resolved to take effective steps to collect the taxes in arrears and adjust Rs 500/- annually towards the dues and request that the interest in ½ accrued on the dues so far may be waived The D C supports the request and recommends to Government

5 The arrears are those from the year 1932—33 Brekal Town Cl has not moved its little finger in the discharge of this amount for the last ten years in spite of the orders of the Govt to pay it off in stated ways

6 The present proposal is to pay off in six annual instalments of Rs 500 each, without charging any interest on the amount. Having regard to the past history of the case it is hardly likely that the Cl would keep up its promise. If it is really in earnest, it may be asked to remit a sum of Rs 3000 before 30th June 1943 as its first instalment. If this is done, its request may be considered favorably by the Govt the file being required to see that the necessary provision is made in the annual Budgets of the subsequent years

Sir

Subject - arrears of Preliminary Education Contribution due by Anekal Town Municipality 5079

With reference to your letter No L 10300 M1 108 -42-36 dated 16-4-43 on the above subject, I have the honour to state that Anekal Town Municipal Council have resolved at their meeting held on 30-4-43 that the - Municipality is unsble to take any loan from Government towards the payment of the above arrears They have however consented to clear off the entire arrears in six annual instalments of not less than Rs 500/- The Council prays that on account of slender resources of the - Municipality, Government may be requested to waive the recovery o interest at 4½% per annum as ordered in their No

No L 712-4 Ml 66-39-22 dated 18-7-1940 This seems to be a legitimate request and deserves sympathetic consideration. I therefore request that final orders of Government may be kindly obtained on the resolution of the Municipal Council dated 30-4-1943 The Connected records accompany for favour of reference and return

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

Deputy Commissioner,
